Notes for Patrick Phelan Whelan:

Patrick Whelan, John J. Scott, Mrs. J. H. McClure

THREE PIONEER SETTLERS OF DICKEY COUNTY PASS

Oakes, ND, Dec. 9 - Three pioneers of Dickey county died in this vicinity this week. Patrick Whelan, 66, who settled on a homestead north-east of Ellendale, May 1883, passed away last week. A widow and eight children survive. John J. Scott, one of the oldest settlers of this county, died at the home of his son, Charles D. Scott, four miles west of Ellendale, last week. Mrs. J. H. McClure, who left here with her daughter in November to spend the winter at Manson, Iowa, died in that city. Her husband passed away in January, 1913. [The Bismarck Tribune.

(Bismarck, N.D.), 09 Dec. 1916]</line><line /><line>Community History: Ellendale, ND – Centennial 1882-1982 –A Century of Memories, p.335-336. The early priests who visited the Forbes vicinity were the various pastors of Ellendale. There is no record of when the first Mass was celebrated. Pat Whelan was one of the first Catholic Settlers in this area. St. Joseph's became a Station shortly after the starting of the town. The nationality of the Catholic population was Irish so it was quite fitting to have Father O'Callaghan and Father Duffy as their pastors. St. Joseph's became a Mission about 1916 with 100 persons served by Father Berne from Ellendale. It is he who built the first church in 1922. The first church was built at a cost of $4,000 but there was a debt on it for $1500.00. Then the Irish Catholics started to move out of the territory and the German Russians (Protestant) came in from the hills. Father Long managed to pay $500.00 of the indebtedness, but when the total Catholic population was reduced to one Catholic family and a few nominal ones, it was imperative that something be done to pay the remaining debt. At the advice of the Bishop, the building was sold to the Churches –Dickey County, NDCompiled by: Allen E. Konrad35Emanuel Evangelical Congregation in 1928. The debt was paid and a small chapel, which was a remodeled schoolhouse, was purchased for about $15000.00. This served as their place of worship until Father Long, the priest from Edgeley who was conducting services, became ill. The Catholics then attended services at Ellendale</line><line /><line>Elm Township

Notes for Walter McKaig:

Crossing through the Detroit, Michigan entry to the U.S., 19 year old Walter McKaig forges ahead in making a new life for himself. Just about 2 months shy of his 20th birthday, the relocation must have seemed a grand adventure to this young man. Leaving his father and mother - Patrick and Lizzie McKaig behind in Quebec (387 St. Oliver St.) Walter takes up residence with his aunt, Annie Kenney - possibly his mother's sister for a better life and steady work. Hopefully he got himself established before the Great Depression set in.

</line><line /><line>At the same time, Frank and Mae Tanner settle in with their family of two girls, Jane and Mary, in the town of Reading, Massachusetts. Walter and Mae are first cousins, Walter's father Patrick being the brother of Mae's mother, Mary Ann McKaig Morrison. Mary Ann was two years older than Patrick. Their older brother, Mike, found himself in Whitefield, New Hampshire, and tragically, both siblings, Mike and Mary Ann, passed from this earth while living in Whitefield. Patrick, Walter's father, must have thought against taking up residence in Whitefield, and lived to father a family of six, Walter being the second youngest of the tribe.

Notes for Curt Schweitz:

Curt Schweitz was a beloved Father, Brother and Son who made a lasting and cherished impression on everyone who knew him. Curt passed away peacefully at his home in Ellendale, North Dakota on June 1st. Curt was born in San Mateo, California to Delia (Whelan) and George Schweitz and had two older sisters: Donna and Debra, both of which he was very close to. Curt lived his childhood in the Bay Area, California and North Dakota, and graduated from high school at San Mateo High School in California. He loved growing up in North Dakota most of all, as he was an avid outdoorsman, who loved hunting and fishing. Curt was formerly married to Jan Schweitz; together they raised their two sons Matthew and Anthony in the Bay Area and Napa Valley, California. Matthew and Anthony's fondest memories with Curt were doing outdoor activities such as golfing, hunting, fishing and other sports, which they all enjoyed very much. Curt was very active in Matthew and Anthony's school sports teams as a coach and volunteer. Curt worked for Bank of America as an Operations Manager and Fraud Investigator for most of his career, but the later part of his career he enjoyed working in Human Services finding work for disabled and mentally challenged individuals. He was also very active religiously and had a very strong relationship with God. Curt lived the last few years of his life in Ellendale, ND, a place where his Mother was born and where he had his fondest memories growing up. Curt's family and friends will miss him very much and are honored to have been close to him.

Albert (Bert) G. Fleming, a loving husband of the late Marie, father of Carol (a Dominican sister), brother, and uncle died on Tuesday, June 5, 2007 at Scottsdale Healthcare Osborn. Born June 11, 1907 in Lake Beauport, Quebec, an Irish community in the Laurentians, he emigrated to Michigan in the late 1920s. Bert married Marie A. Moning in 1935 and they settled in Michigan where he worked for the Ford Motor Company and later for the Detroit Board of Education for 28 years as an engineer. In retirement, Bert and Marie wintered in Scottsdale beginning in 1973 until they moved here permanently in 1988. His care of Marie in her illness until her death in 1989 was a model of love and fidelity. Love of his faith and family and concern for others were the hallmarks of his nearly 100 years of life. Irish wit, sense of humor, and courtly manners were the constants of his life even in his final days. He was an avid reader, golfer, fisherman, card player, and solver of crossword puzzles, and participated actively in the Roadrunner men's exercise group for over 25 years. He remained a member of the Wyandotte, MI council of the Knights of Columbus. Extensive travel took the family across the US, Canada, Europe, Australia, and New Zealand. He especially cherished his three trips to Ireland. When Carol entered the Order of Preachers (Dominicans) both Bert and Marie became adoptive parents of their (then) 2000 Adrian Dominican daughters. The relationship between them and the Adrian sisters was one of strong mutual love and active service. They visited the Dominican sisters even if Carol was not there. Bert's appreciation of education's value as well as his extraordinary love of his daughter moved him to support ministries in which she served including: Aquinas Institute of Theology, Regina Dominican College Prep, and Boys Hope Girls Hope in IL and AZ. Bert is survived by his daughter Carol Fleming, OP; sister Kathleen Olsen of Lebanon, NH; sisters-in-law Muriel Basnett of Grimsby, ON, Sonnie Fleming of Sarnia, ON, Winnie Fleming of Comox, BC, and Betty Moning of Flat Rock, MI; brothers-in-law Gerald of Chatham ON, Murray of Trenton, MI, and Leo Moning of Hamilton, ON, and many nieces, nephews, and their children. He's been the Fleming patriarch at family reunions for the past 25 years. Bert cherished the spiritual support and comfort that St. Theresa Parish provided for the last seven months of his life. The Eucharistic liturgy and rite of committal (St. Francis Cemetery) will begin at 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, June 13 at St. Theresa Catholic Church, 5045 E. Thomas Rd., Phoenix. Memorials are suggested for Boys Hope Girls Hope (3443 N. Central Ave., Phoenix, AZ 85012 or 1100 N. Laramie, Wilmette, IL 60091), Regina Dominican College Prep (708 Locust Rd., Wilmette, IL 60091) or the Adrian Dominican Ministry Trust (1257 Siena Heights Dr., Adrian, MI 49221). BROWN, Rosaria, (nee Nearing)
1923-2018

Peacefully on Monday May 21, 2018 at the age of 95. Rose leaves behind her beloved husband Paul to whom she was married for almost 71 years. Devoted mother of Ann, Stephen, Paul, Linda and Eric, she was much loved by her grandchildren: Dana, Tess, Abby, Shaylee and Keara. She was one of 16 children born of Flora McMullin and Patrick Nearing, Rose is survived by her brother Francis in Oregon, and predeceased by her son, David. Rose and Paul met while studying at St. Francis Xavier University in Antigonish, Nova Scotia. They married and settled in Montreal and moved later on to Ottawa. They enjoyed spending winters in Florida. Mom was an avid sports fan; whether it was hockey, football or golf, she followed her favorite teams closely. When she turned 87, she was asked: "Mom who is 87?" "Sidney Crosby" she replied, without missing a beat. Rose will be forever missed by her family and friends. A Memorial Mass will be held at St. Malachy's Church, 3889 HWY-315, Mayo, QC J8L 3Z8 on Thursday, May 31 at 11:30 am. In lieu of flowers, donations to St. Malachy's Church in Mayo, Quebec would be appreciated. www.kellyfh.ca
