Notes for Michael Cahill:

Fromage au lait cru

Le grand Cahill, en hommage à Michael Cahill, un bâtisseur né à Lyster, Irlande et fils de Michael Cahill et de Margaret Lee.

Michael Cahill achète une terre à Jersey-Mills et y construit le premier hôtel de Saint-Georges qui, pendant très longtemps, sera le seul établissement du genre entre la ville de Lévis et l'état du Maine. Les marchands de bois, les géologues et les prospecteurs miniers y séjournent régulièrement. Déjà, Jersey-Mills s'initie à sa vocation touristique.

M. Cahill travaille très fort pour obtenir la construction d'un chemin de fer et d'un pont permanent pour relier les deux rives de Saint-Georges. Ses deux filles, Mary Ann et Margaret épousent respectivement messieurs Philippe Maguire et Louis Gendreau qui continueront l'œuvre de leur beau-père à Saint-Georges.

Une partie de la terre ancestrale de Michael Cahill qui fut cédée à Monsieur Louis Gendreau, est aujourd'hui occupée par l'entreprise de ses descendants, la famille Gendreau. Il s'agit des établissements de santé Le Centre Hospitalier de l'Assomption et le Centre d'Accueil St-Louis (résidence familiale ancestrale des Gendreau ayant appartenu à Louis Gendreau, à son fils Horace et son petit-fils Gérard).

M. Cahill par son esprit d'initiative contribuera de façon exemplaire au développement de Saint-Georges et de la Beauce. En donnant le nom "Le grand Cahill" au fromage de lait cru, La Fromagerie La Pépîte d'Or rend hommage à cette famille de grands bâtisseurs.

Generation 6 (con't)

WINDHAM, Conn. -- Agnes Jane Haggan Paradise was called to her eternal rest on Friday, Dec. 30, 2011. She was at home surrounded by her close family. She was predeceased by her loving husband of 52 years, Sherburn Ellis Paradise.

Agnes was born in Jackman, Maine, on Oct. 1, 1935, to the late Joseph Leo Haggan and Maria (Cormier) Haggan.

Agnes raised her family in Windham, Conn., and proudly watched her four daughters grow. She and her family spent their summers at their lakeside camp in Long Pond, Maine.

She was an avid reader and enjoyed writing short stories about her childhood and for her grandchildren.

She volunteered in libraries in the Windham Public School System and dedicated many hours to the American Cancer Society. She and Sherburn retired to Jackman, Maine, and there she was an active member of the American Legion Auxiliary, St. Anthony's Church Prayer Group, the public library and several other senior citizen organizations. Agnes was a quiet person who was well-liked by those who knew her. Collecting antiques, traveling, scrapbooking and spending time with family brought Agnes great joy.

Agnes is also predeceased by her sister, Sylvia; her brothers, Thomas and Roy Haggan; and her great-grandson, Christian Luis Merendina Rivera.

Agnes is survived by her sister, Christine (Haggan) Hughey, of Jackman. She also leaves behind four daughters, Tena (Paradise) Merendina and husband Robert, Kemmie Paradise, Kye Reen Paradise and husband Pierre Morin, and Landa Paradise Leonhardt and husband Christopher. Agnes will be missed by her 10 grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held in Jackman in the summer of 2012, where Agnes will be laid to rest beside her husband.

Notes for Richard Lindy Duval Sr:

JACKMAN -- Richard L. Duval Sr., "Dick," 78, died Aug. 15, 2007, at the Redington Fairview General Hospital in Skowhegan.

He was born March 22, 1929, in Jackman, the son of Omer and Helen (Haggan) Duval. Dick was a lifelong resident of the Jackman area and communicant of St. Anthony's Catholic Church, serving Mass under the guidance of Father Forrest. He graduated from Jackman High School in 1946, immediately enlisted in the Army's 11th Airborne Division, qualifying as a paratrooper and a paraglider, serving in the occupation of Japan for one year. He worked for Scott Paper Company for 38 years, retiring in 1986.

Over the years his patriotic and civic duty called him to serve as a member of the Arno E. Hughey American Legion Post 122; as a lifetime member, as well as quartermaster for 19 years, for the William B. Doughty Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 5723; a member of the Border Riders Snowmobile Club; as the Jackman Alumni Association treasurer for many years; as selectman and treasurer for Dennistown Plantation; as selectman and assessor and S.A.D. 12 School Board member for the town of Jackman; an affiliate with the American Forester Association; and he completed a course in Real Estate which he "dabbled" in after retirement. Dick always felt his instrumental involvement in the creation of the Jackman Recycle and Transfer Station was a notable achievement.

Dick was extremely proud that his French language and woods industry knowledge allowed him to serve as an interpreter for the United States Department of Labor in Senegal and Ivory Coast in Africa. He also put great confidence into the ownership of Stewart's Camps in Dennistown Plantation for 18 years where he was a Registered Maine Guide, he was able to share his lifetime experiences in hunting, fishing, and trapping, and could boast that he was the first local Moose Lottery Permittee in 1980.

Dick was predeceased by his parents; one brother; three sisters; one nephew; one niece; and an infant son, James Omer.

He is survived by his wife of 56 years, Joyce Crossman Duval; five daughters, Melinda, Dale, Mary, Jolyne, and Mona; one son, Richard Jr.; an aunt, Louise Cowette (101 years old); one sister, Jeannette Holden; one brother, Lee Duval; a brother-in-law, Peter D'Arcangelo; nine grandchildren and one great-granddaughter; many nieces, nephews, and cousins.
